EXAMINATIONS

Students are responsible for all textbook material covered, assigned outside reading, and all material discussed in class. Exams will consist primarily of problems, short answers, and multiple-choice questions. There are no makeup exams. If you miss one exam (excluding the final), you will receive an exam score equal to 85% of the unadjusted score you earned on the final exam. If you miss more than one exam and/or if you miss the final exam, your score on those missed exams will be zero.

CHANGES TO SYLLABUS

Items included in this syllabus, excluding those items that are mandated by the University, may be changed as determined in the instructor’s sole discretion. In the event there are changes made by the instructor, these changes will be provided to students as soon as possible. These notices can include announcements in class, e-mail, and or notices posted on Blackboard. Therefore, it is critical that, at a minimum, students check both e-mails and Blackboard on a regular basis.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

In accordance with CSU Channel Islands policy on academic dishonesty, students in this course who submit work of others as their own (plagiarize), cheat on tests and examinations, help other students cheat or plagiarize, or commit other acts of academic dishonesty will receive appropriate academic penalties, up to and including failing the course.
SELECTED TERMS/REVIEW
On the day of the final, list of selected terms (30 points) must be submitted. No late submissions (after start of final exam) will be accepted. This assignment is to be completed by each student without any consultation or coordination with anyone else. Violation of this requirement will result in appropriate penalties. Please see Blackboard for additional information.

HOMEWORK
Homework listed in Blackboard and the exercises covered in class are designed to reinforce concepts from class lecture and the text. Students are expected to read the chapter and attempt the exercises listed on the syllabus prior to class. The homework assignments and the related due dates are listed in Blackboard. You may study and work on homework together, but each individual student must submit homework individually. Students may be randomly chosen to provide their solutions to the class.

Homework that is collected for the chapters related to each exam will be worth a total of ten (10) points. Since homework may not be able to be returned in all cases, please make a copy for your records. To receive maximum points, presentation, completeness, and neatness counts. All problems should be clearly presented, with all work shown, and any written aspects must be printed neatly.

All homework will be collected at the beginning of class on the day the homework is due. Students can work with anyone on the homework assignment but the solution submitted must be their own individual work.

If you are late to class, homework will not be accepted after the first ten (10) minutes of class. In the event you will not be in class at the time it is collected, you can email me the homework, drop it off in my mailbox, or have a friend bring it to class anytime time prior to start of class on the day the specific homework will be collected.

PARTICIPATION AND PROFESSIONAL CLASSROOM CONDUCT
The classroom is a special environment in which students and faculty come together to promote learning and growth. It is essential to this learning environment that respect for the rights of others seeking to learn, respect for the professionalism of the instructor, and the general goals of academic freedom are maintained. Differences of viewpoint or concerns should be expressed in terms, which are supportive of the learning process, creating an environment in which students and faculty may learn to reason with clarity and compassion, to share themselves without losing their identities, and to develop an understanding of the community in which they live. Student conduct, which disrupts the learning process, shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class. All cell phones (voice or text, pagers, iPods, iPads, laptop computers, taping/recording equipment and any other communication devices are NOT permitted to be used in class at any time. Only those students who are currently registered in the class may attend.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES
Upon identifying themselves to the instructor and the University, students with disabilities will receive reasonable accommodation for learning and evaluation. Students with physical, learning or other disabilities are encouraged to contact the Disability Accommodation Services office at (805) 437-8510 for personal assistance and accommodations.
ALWAYS BRING YOUR TEXTBOOK AND A CALCULATOR TO CLASS!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Lecture Outline: As stated in the syllabus, this schedule is tentative and will be modified whenever developments indicate that a change is desirable. All changes to the syllabus will be announced by email, Blackboard or in class.
