Participation

Some of the characteristics of effective class participation are:

1.

Are the points that are made relevant to the discussion in terms of increasing everyone's understanding, or are they merely regurgitation of case facts?

2.

Do your comments take into account comments made by others earlier in the class, or are the points isolated and disjointed?

The

best contributions following the lead off tend to be those that reflect, not only excellent preparation, but good listening, and interpretative and integrative skills as well.

3.

Do your comments show evidence of a thorough reading and analysis of the case?

4.

Does the participant distinguish among different kinds of data that is, facts, opinions, assumptions, and inferences?

5.

Is there a willingness to test new ideas or are all comments cautious/"safe"?

Examples of things that cause one not to earn the full amount of participation points:

1.

Doing homework in class. (unless asked to)

2.

Being disruptive.

3.

Arriving late, leaving early.

4.

Cell phone use.

5.

Laptop, tablet, smart phone use other than taking notes.

6.

Sleeping in class.

Attendance

Attendance to this class is required! Statistics have shown those students who come to class get higher grades. Going to college is a commitment, just like a job. Therefore, I treat it as such in many ways. On a job, employees often have "no excuses asked" sick days. You will receive 2"sick days" no excuses asked. I need no doctor's excuses, explanations, etc. They are "freebies." I myself might have to take advantage of this, too as I often have meetings or conferences that call me away from the classroom.

However, the assignments are still due and are still required on time. I do not start counting absences until the 3rd miss. I, too, am responsible for the classroom work when I am absent I have to provide substitute work and assignments.

In each class I will have you log in at end of class for class credit that day.

On the 3rd absence you will lose 1 letter grade and so on after after that.

I need you in class to not only help you learn but to help make me better, your questions and insight are necessary for a successful learning experience. Add text here. Civil Discourse

All students, staff and faculty on our campus are expected to join in making our campus a safe space for communication and civil discourse. If you are experiencing discomfort related to the language you are hearing or seeing on campus (in or out of classes), please talk with a trusted faculty or staff member. Similarly, please consider whether the language that you are using (in person or on Canvas) respects the rights of others to "engage in informed discourse and express a diversity of opinions freely and in a civil manner" (language from Academic Senate Resolution SR 16-01, Commitment to Equity, Inclusion, and Civil Discourse within our Diverse Campus Community).

In addition, students whose conduct adversely affects the learning environment in this classroom may be subject to disciplinary action. Students that disrupt this course may receive a verbal and written warning from the instructor, they may be excused from the class for the day, they may be excused from the class for up to one class period, and/or they may be referred to the Dean of Students office for further review and possible disciplinary action. OTHER POLICIES

Our Class Disruption Plan

Yes!

A disruption means you, me, or all of us cannot participate in 'class as usual' for a reason we could not predict at the beginning of the semester. After COVID-19, we are well aware that disruption can happen fast. While we hope to avoid any closures due to COVID related reasons, let's face it, disruption happens every semester. You may get sick, I may get sick, or campus may close due to a wildfire - this is California afterall. Life happens! Our goal as a learning community is to do our best to keep teaching and learning with as little interruption as possible. This page explains what you can expect from me and what I expect from you when facing disruption - small or big!

If I am 'out'

You will receive an email with any details I can provide. Expectations will be that you follow Canvas deliverables, due dates and instructions. More in likely I will have asynchronous instruction (not meeting in person), meaning you complete videos and assignments submitted through Canvas. If possible I could also have synchronous (meeting in Zoom in person) with Canvas deliverables.

If you are 'out'

If you out for an extended period of time please send me an email so we can work out adjustments to the schedule for you. My goal would be to help you navigate to success.

If Campus Closes

If all of campus closes, which has happened at least once over the last three or more academic years.

- You will receive an email from me as well as the university.
- We would move to weekly ZOOM meetings, to replace the FTF classes and we would continue to follow the syllabus/Canvas outline.
- Class sessions would be recorded and made available to students who could not attend.
- Students would participate in a follow up discussion based on the class session using the discussion forum.
- Arrangements can be made due to ability to learn from home, family, WIFI, etc. with a meeting with me.
- Please make sure you reach out as I want to make sure this disruption does not hinder YOUR SUCCESS!

The classroom is a special environment in which students and faculty come together to promote learning and growth. It is essential to this learning environment that respect for the rights of others seeking to learn, respect for the professionalism of the instructor, and the general goals of academic freedom are maintained. Differences of viewpoint or concerns should be expressed in terms which are supportive of the learning process, creating an environment in which students and faculty may learn to reason with clarity and compassion, to share of themselves without losing their identities, and to develop an understanding of the community in which they live. Student conduct which disrupts the learning process shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class. Also, unless there is an emergency, students should use the restroom before class or during the break and switch off the cell phones.

Academic dishonesty includes such things as cheating, inventing false information or citations, plagiarism and helping someone else commit an act of academic dishonesty. It usually involves an attempt by a student to show possession of a level of knowledge or skills that he/she does not possess. Any assignment or exam will receive an automatic grade of "F" if academic dishonesty is involved. A second incidence of academic dishonesty in a course may be cause for a grade of "F" to be awarded as the final course grade.

Withdrawing from the course

It is the student's responsibility to officially withdraw from the course. Complete withdrawal without instructor's approval: by the end of third week of classes. No drops permitted after the third week of classes. Withdrawal will only be allowed for serious and compelling reasons only: by the end of week 10 (instructor and chair approval required; documentation required; students will receive a W).

Students with disabilities

CSUCI encourages persons with disabilities to participate in its program and activities. Students with disabilities needing accommodation should make requests to the Disability Resource Programs, at the Educational Access Center, Bell Tower Room 1541 (805-437-8529, accommodations@csuci.edu). All requests for accommodations require appropriate advance notice to avoid a delay in services. Please, discuss approved accommodations with me.

Syllabus Disclaimer

The above scheduled activities may be adjusted should some chapters prove to be simpler or more difficult than anticipated. Any changes in homework or exam dates will be announced in advance and other problems may be assigned for in-class work if time permits.

THIS SYLLABUS IS NOT A CONTRACT AND THE INSTRUCTOR RESERVES THE RIGHT TO CHANGE IT AT ANY TIME.

Emergency Intervention and Basic Needs

If you or someone you know is experiencing unforeseen or catastrophic financial issues, skipping meals or experiencing homelessness/housing insecurity (e.g. sleeping in a car, couch surfing, staying with friends), please know that you are not alone. There are resources on campus that may assist you during this time. The Dolphin Pantry is currently located in Arroyo Hall and offers free food, toiletries and basic necessities for current CI students. For additional assistance, please contact the Dean of Students office at (805) 437-8512 or visit Bell Tower 2565. Title IX and Inclusion

Title IX & Inclusion manages the University's equal opportunity compliance, including the areas of affirmative action and Title IX. Title IX & Inclusion also oversees the campus' response to the University's nondiscrimination policies. CSU Channel Islands prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind on the basis of a protected status (i.e., age, disability, gender, genetic information, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, medical condition, nationality, race or ethnicity, religion or religious creed, sexual orientation, and Veteran or Military Status).
